Richmond, WM Promote Relationship of Students

$300 Williamsburg Damages Brings Letter Of Apology From University

A drive for better relationships between the University of Richmond and the College of William and Mary has begun as a result of last week's pre-game skirmishes.

Convocation was held at the University of Richmond on Tuesday, November 20, for the purpose of discussing the acts of defacement committed against the property of William and Mary, and the proper settlement to be made.

As a result of the convocation, a letter of apology from the Richmond students was sent to President John E. Pomfret. In accordance with a decision to have the matter handled by students rather than the administrations, the student committees from the two colleges met in Williamsburg on Wednesday, November 21.

The representatives of William and Mary were Fritz Zepht, president of the student body; Tommy Smith, president of the Honor Council; Greg Mann, vice-president of the Honor Council; and Harry Stinson, junior member of the Honor Council. The representatives of the University of Richmond were Gordon Conklin, president of the student government; Mosley Powell, treasurer of the student government; and Ralph Shotwell, chairman of the Honor Council.

The meeting was held in the office of the dean of men; only students were present. Henry Keyser, head of grounds and maintenance, showed the committees around the campus, pointing out the damage, which included painting the pavements and the walls of Jefferson Dormitory, splattering Monroe Hall with roofing tar, and damaging the stadium walls with paint which will require sandblasting to be removed. Mr. Keyser estimated the damage to be between $300 and $500. It was agreed by the conferees that, although only a few Richmond boys were responsible for the damage, the University of Richmond will pay for it in full by assessing every student. The William and Mary representatives expressed regret for our part in the proceedings.

Echo Chooses Beauty Queens

Five girls will be selected from the sorority and dormitory nominees for the beauty section of this year's Colonial Echo. The women's residence halls and sorority houses have completed their balloting. The campus men have yet to announce their candidates.

Each candidate will be asked to submit a large photograph of herself, which will be examined by a secretly selected group of masculine judges. Results of the selections and the identity of the judges will not be announced until the publication date of the Colonial Echo.

Results of the dormitory elections include candidates for: Brown, Jean McLeod and Mary Lou Sibley; Monroe, Jean Myers and Diana Wedel; Jefferson, Carol Passow, Kay Larson, and Ferne Broadus; Barrett, Janie Spencer and Pat Curtis; Chandler, Charlotte Anderson and Wilma Spewak.

Each of the nine sororities has

At The Last Minute

Senior activities cards must be filled in and placed in the Colonial Echo box in the Registrar's office by Friday, November 30, Deeks Phipps, editor, has announced.

Marguerite Wynne-Roberts, assistant dean of women, has announced that the recreation room in Old Dominion will be opened for dating Wednesdays, Fridays and Sundays. It will be opened from 7:30 to 11:00 p. m.

Proofs for the Colonial Echo must be returned by mail to Chidnoff's studios within a week after they are received, not to the Colonial Echo office, as stated in last week's FLAT HAT.

Lambert Assumes Double Capacity

Dr. J. Wilfred Lambert will return to the William and Mary faculty on Saturday, December 1, as dean of students and assistant professor of psychology. The position of dean of students is new at William and Mary, and as yet Dr. Lambert's duties in this capacity have not been clearly defined. "In all probability," stated Dr. James W. Miller, dean of the faculty, "Dr. Lambert will not teach many psychology classes this year."

Dr. Lambert was the dean of men and assistant professor of psychology at William and Mary until July 16, 1943, when he entered the Navy. He served as Executive Officer of the Naval Chaplains' School, which left William and Mary on November 15.

Editor Outlines Literary Shop

Dr. Burges Johnson, author and editor, will lecture at 8:00 p. m. tonight in Phi Beta Kappa Hall. His topic will be "Literary Shop", and will include comments on such authors as Mark Twain and O. Henry. According to Dr. Jess H. Jackson, head of the English Department, Dr. Johnson is a man of "experience and long standing" in lecturing. In the past, Dr. Johnson has lectured at universities and teachers' associations from Harvard to the University of California.

Thursday afternoon, November 29, Dr. Johnson will speak to members of the English composition classes on "Manners and Morals of the Press". A graduate of Amherst College, Dr. Johnson taught English at Vassar College for a year and then became professor of English at Mount Union College, where he taught until his retirement.

Dr. Johnson has had wide editorial experience, having held positions on many literary staffs, among them, that of Harper's magazine.

Cossack Chorus Comes To W-M; Gives Varied Concert December 7

Russian Music Program Includes Songs, Dances

Coming to William and Mary in the midst of their seventh American tour, the General Platoff Don Cossack Chorus will appear on the stage of Phi Beta Kappa Hall December 7, as the second event of the 1945-46 Concert Series, Dr. A. P. Wagener, chairman of special events has announced.

The 27 members of the chorus who were exiled from their native land, following World War I made their debut in Vienna in 1926 and their first appearance in the United States at the San Francisco World's Fair in 1939. First organized in Prague under the patronage of Thomas Masryk, president of Czechoslovakia, since that time they have toured the five continents giving more than 4,000 concerts.

Under the direction of Nicholas Kostrukoff, the chorus will present a varied program of Russian music including liturgical music of the Russian-Orthodox church, folk melodies, Cossack war songs, and the latest songs to come out of Russia. In addition, their program includes Caucasian dances, the Lesginka and the Kozatchok. The former includes an exhibition of knife juggling in which the dancer places eight daggers on his shoulders, forehead and mouth and then whirls around until he projects each dagger to the floor of the stage in a straight line. The voices of the all men's chorus range from high soprano to low bass.

The chorus has made several radio appearances including the RCA Victor, Libby-Owens-Ford, and Coca Cola programs; they have recorded for Victor Red Seal. In addition to their regular trans-continental concert tour, they appeared at army camps and hospitals and for various War Loan Drives during the war.

Jimmy Lunceford Plays At Midwinters Saturday

Unique Decorations, Lighting Deck Gym At First Postwar Dance Event

Jimmy Lunceford's orchestra, the first name band booked for Midwinters since 1942, will play at the initial large peacetime dance in Blow Gym, Saturday from 8:30 to 12:00 p. m. With a receiving line, formal decorations and unique lighting effects, the dance will take on the aspects of the big dances of pre-war years.

Among the group which will receive between 9:00 and 9:30 p. m., will be President and Mrs. John E. Pomfret, Dr. and Mrs. Sharvy G.

Jimmy Lunceford

Umbeck, Miss Marguerite Wynne-Roberts, Fritz Zepht and Donnie Lepper, and Marilyn Wood and Lt. Don Cushman. Decorations which will be of a formal theme will include potted palms and special lighting effects attained with eight spot lights. The band, placed just in front of the balcony of the large gym, will have a blue drape from the balcony to the floor for a background.

Lunceford's band is one of the foremost in the country and he is often termed the colored "Paul Whiteman" of America, according to "Downbeat", a musical newspaper. Jimmy formed his own band in 1929 and prior to that he had been playing his saxophone in other bands. Since the formation of his band he has appeared throughout the country at theaters, ballrooms, night clubs, and college dances. This much sought after band has made recordings for Victor, Decca, and Columbia records, his most recent hit being "The Honeydripper". Composing has also occupied much of Jimmy's time. In 1936 he composed and introduced "Honey" and later "Uptown Blues".

Student Fund Closes Friday

Francine Bouillon, French refugee, spoke at a joint meeting of the campus religious groups Sunday, November 25, at the Presbyterian Church. This talk was made as part of a five-week American tour by Miss Bouillon in behalf of the World Student Service Fund. The William and Mary campaign for the Fund began November 20 with a goal of $600, and will end on Friday, November 30.

Miss Bouillon spoke of her experiences in the French underground movement and in a French concentration camp and prison. Paris-born, she was a student at the Sorbonne when the war broke out. The students realized that unless they escaped they would be taken to Germany for enforced labor. "We left mainly because we had to hide," she said. "We hid in towns under false identity, sometimes, and sometimes we hid in the woods where we joined the Maquis, who were French people determined to escape being sent to Germany."

Miss Bouillon came into contact with the World Student Service organization at a rest and relief station sponsored by that organization for weary students who had been working with the resistance. Prior to this time she had been captured, sent to Germany, and, after a second try, had succeeded in escaping to the refuge of a convent where she remained for five months. Included in Miss Bouillon's experiences are walking 100 miles with a message, spending a month in a concentration camp, and 15 days in a prison cell, hunting for food, and taking part in many saboteur acts.

The services of Miss Bouillon were procured through Miss Judith Austin, Regional Secretary of the

Physics Authority Tells Use Of Atomic Energy

Dr. Henry D. Smyth, author of the first report on the atomic bomb, will be guest speaker at a program presented in connection with the annual celebration of the founding of Phi Beta Kappa in 1776. The author of the famed Smyth report, "Atomic Energy for Military Purposes", which was officially released by the government last August, will speak on the "Social Implications of Atomic Energy" in Phi Beta Kappa Hall on Wednesday, December 5, at 8:00 p. m.

Dr. Smyth, chairman of the physics department at Princeton University, received his B.A. there in 1918, his M.A. in 1920, and his Ph.D. in 1921. In 1923, he also received a Ph.D. from Cambridge. A national research fellow in physics at Princeton and Cambridge 1921-1924, he joined the faculty of Princeton in 1924, becoming chairman of the physics department in 1936. A fellow of the Guggenheim Memorial Foundation 1931-1932, a member of the subcommittee on physics of the National Research Council 1928-1935 and again in 1941, and associate editor of "Physical Review" 1927-1930; Dr. Smyth has done extensive research on ionization of gases, positive ray analysis, and molecular structure.

Approximately 80 members of the Engineers' Club of the Virginia Peninsula will attend the program on December 5 as guests of Phi Beta Kappa in order to hear Dr. Smyth's address.

State Department Position Sought By Marge Kellogg

Potential Diplomat Plans Law Work In New York After Graduation

"When I graduate I'd like to work in the State Department," said tall, blonde Marge Kellogg. Ever since she was a junior or senior in high school she's wanted to study law. So far nothing has changed her mind, for next June, Marge will graduate with the degree of Bachelor of Civil Law. Then she plans to go on to Columbia Law School for two years—"I hope, that is, if they'll have me," Marge adds.

After she finishes at Columbia, Marge hopes to work for an international law firm for a while, in order to get practical experience.

At Columbia she intends to study Russian just in case she might get sent to Russia by the government. Either Russia or China would be her choice because she thinks they are the countries that need the most understanding. If Marge did get sent to some other country she would probably be able to learn the language in a short time because she already has a solid foundation in three languages.

Possibly her greatest ambition is to see the United Nations Charter put into effect and to work on the legal end of it through the State Department.

The main reason for Marge's interest in this type of work is that she feels "the field of foreign service is just about the biggest field open in these days and there is such a need for that type of work all over the world."

Last summer, Hugh Wilson, our former Ambassador to Germany told her women have trouble getting ahead in any man's field but that it can be done just as easily in the diplomatic service as in anything else. But Marge says,

Marge Kellogg

"It's getting to be a woman's world anyway. The way women get to the top is by letting the men think they're doing it all." Just in case men are inclined to sneer at a woman diplomat, Marge is glad she'll have her law degree with which to impress them.

So far as she knows at this moment, this will really be a life's work with her as she claims she's not interested in getting married.

Author Kohler Visits Campus

Dr. Wolfgang Kohler, noted German psychologist and author of psychology books, visited the campus last week end with his wife and daughter.

While on campus, Dr. Kohler held discussions with William and Mary's psychology professors, Dr. Edgar M. Foltin, Dr. Richard H. Henneman, and Richard C. Ledgerwood.

Dr. Kohler is now professor of psychology at Swarthmore College in Swarthmore, Penn. Four of his books in the college library are: "Dynamics in Psychology", "Gestalt Psychology", "The Mentality of Apes", and "The Place of Value in the World of Facts".

Oliver Favors Hunting, Fishing; Collects Glass

Head Of Education Department Has Bachelor Of Arts Degree From W-M

"There's really nothing much to tell about me," confessed George J. Oliver, head of the department of education and Director of the Summer Session. He added, during a recent interview, that he has "just lead an ordinary life". However, the host of varied interests that Mr. Oliver has acquired illustrates his diversified capabilities.

Prior to his coming to William and Mary this September, he was employed as Director of Instruction in the State Department of Education in Richmond. Mr. Oliver has also taught in several Virginia schools and was principal of some.

During the first World War, he served as field artillery officer, and the past few years has worked unofficially on pre-induction courses. Having received his B.A. degree at William and Mary, Mr. Oliver earned his master's degree at the Columbia University Teachers' College in New York City.

"I like almost any kind of music from boogie-woogie to the classics, depending upon my mood at the time," Mr. Oliver stated. He is also a sports enthusiast in the spectator's as well as the participant's line, favoring hunting and fishing most of all. Collecting old blue glass is another one of his many hobbies.

Although Mr. Oliver has no pronounced likes or dislikes, he is fond of working with people in general. The many traditions associated with William and Mary impress him immensely as well as the college's location in the heart of colonial America.

Y.W.C.A. Representatives Collect Membership Dues

The YWCA is also assisting in sponsoring the drive for money for the World Students' Service fund.

Bryant Enjoys Singing, Dating, Meeting People

Religious Leader, Phi Beta Kappa Completes College In Two Years

"One of my pet peeves is taking lecture notes," states Bob Bryant, newly elected Phi Beta Kappa, and member of Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges.

Bob will graduate in February, having completed four years of college in two years. During this time, he has supported himself entirely, with the exception of two merit scholarships, the King Carter, and Robert W. Hughes. Upon graduation he plans to continue his education at the Yale Divinity School, in preparation for entering the ministry. He is president of the Wesley Foundation and the Inter-Religious Council, and is vice-president of Eta Sigma Phi, an honorary classical fraternity.

Born in Manassas, Va., Bob is 20 years old. He is noted on the William and Mary campus for getting people out of jams, and doing an excellent job of it.

Most of his spare time is spent going to week-end conferences, but after a hard day, he relaxes by reading a book or singing with a group.

Doing leather-work is also another way in which he relaxes. But says Bob, "I just can't seem to find time to do the things I want to". He claims that the crowd of people in the post-office arcade causes him to waste much of that precious element.

Dating is one of his favorite pastimes, but sophisticated girls are tabu where he is concerned.

Practically "Everybody" Comes To Williamsburg

Famous Visitors To Town Include Admiral Nimitz, Katharine Hepburn

Sooner or later just about everybody who is anybody gets around to visiting Williamsburg and William and Mary. Over a period of years famous people have come here for a few days and every president since Harding has been here except President Truman.

During the war many high ranking army and navy officers as well diplomatic officials have journeyed to Williamsburg. Some of the better known visitors have been Admiral Nimitz, General Marshall, Admiral Leahy, and Sir Alexander Brooks from England. At one time the joint staffs of Britain and the United States took off a few days from one of their conferences to see the Town.

A great many of the well known personages who come to Williamsburg stay here incognito to escape curiosity seekers. When Katharine Hepburn was here she came under an assumed name and wandered around the streets without being recognized.

While some of these visitors stay at the President's house, most of them stay at the Lodge or the Inn. When Mrs. Winston Churchill and her daughter Mary were here they stayed at the Lodge and pictures of them are in the lobby there. Last spring Walt Disney came here and in the past year Lord and Lady Halifax and the Archbishop of York have been in Williamsburg.

"Hardly a week goes by that someone famous doesn't come to town," says Dr. Pomfret. Visitors to the college usually want to see the Wren building and Dr. Pomfret escorts them around the campus to give them a general idea of the grounds. The presidents of Harvard, Princeton, and Cornell as well as the editor of the Boston Globe visit here for a few days every winter.

Governor Darden, Governor-elect Tuck, and several state officials spent a few days here recently. Just in the last two weeks, Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, and Ambassador and Mrs. Lester B. Pearson of Canada stopped in Williamsburg for the week end.

College Decorates Brown Dormitory

Living rooms and offices of Brown Hall are in the process of being redecorated, it was announced by Miss Marguerite Wynne-Roberts, assistant dean of women. The rooms were painted before the opening of the fall semester.

New draperies will be purchased and the furniture will be repaired and replaced shortly after January 1. Interior decoration is being planned by Miller and Rhoads.

"The living rooms and offices of the women's dormitories are remodeled from time to time when the necessity arises," stated Miss Wynne-Roberts. Last year Jefferson Hall was refurnished.

Mid-Semester Rushees Accept Bids Tomorrow

At noon yesterday the lists of girls the sororities are bidding were turned in to Donnie Lepper, president of the Pan-Hellenic Council. Bids are coming out this morning and tomorrow will be acceptance day. At this time the rushees will attend teas at the sorority houses at 1:00 p. m.

This rushing system, instituted for mid-semesters for the first time this year, is on the same order as formal rushing earlier in the season.

Campus Meets Quota Without Formal Drive

President John E. Pomfret has announced that there will be no formal drive on campus for the Victory Loan. The College has met its quota.

Individual students wishing to buy Victory stamps may buy them in their dorms from representatives who will come to their rooms.

AAUP Sends Plan To State Congress

Congressmen of the state of Virginia and other interested parties have been sent copies of the resolution concerning atomic energy and atomic weapons adopted by the American Association of University Professors at a special meeting held Monday evening, November 19, at Washington Hall. The resolution, passed by a vote of 20 to 2, claims that "a policy of secret research and exclusive national control can only result in a ruinous competitive armaments race"; therefore, it urges "the widest freedom of research and interchange of ideas".

Further suggestions embodied in the resolution include that "the legislative action for the control of atomic energy be preceded by full, free and public discussion", and that "security regulations be limited to direct military application of atomic power and that free research and right of publication be immediately resumed in the field of atomic physics".

The discussion was led by Herbert D. Corey, Dr. William G. Guy, and Dr. George J. Ryan.

College Band May Play For Basketball Games

Present List Of Musicians Includes Campus And High School Students

"The first appearance of the band, at the recent football game, was weak, but at least it was a start," ventured Alan C. Stewart, director, who also voiced the possibility that the band can play for basketball games if the students cooperate. Mr. Stewart hopes to get the band well on its way this year so that it will be firmly established by next year.

"There are many students we would like to see in this band," stated Mr. Stewart. "Among those who can play but have not as yet joined, are Ross Musick, Mary Isaac, Donald Anderson, Ruth Chase, and Ennis Rees, clarinets; John Hasty, Andy Williams, and Jeanne Owens, trumpets; Marilyn Graves, piccolo; Al Puth, saxophone; and Barbara Brown, horn."

Present band members are drawn from campus and from high school. In the clarinet section are Eleanor Westbrook, Pat Indence, Charlesworth Dickerson, Joseph Binder, Charles Jones, Bill Waid, Edward Lewis, Mildred Riddle, Mary Jane Cook, John Harvie, and Barry Waters (high school). Trumpeters are James Freeman and Robert Merriman of the College, and Robert Casey, Robert Cottingham, and Robert Peters of the high school. Winifred Jones and Pat Johnson play the piccolos; Margaret Ross and Ann Bennett, the flutes; Donald Koons, Joe Rego, and Mary Keeney, the saxophones.

Alto horns are played by Betty Breed, Edith Isele, and Ailine Nestor; trombones by Wesley Hill, Tommie Smith, and William Hux; drums by Bob DeForest, Matthew Gardner, Carl Johnson; and James Anglum. Carol Shipman plays the bells.

Speidel Speaks At Union Supper

Gerry Speidel, director of the Methodist Student Union, addressed the representatives of the various churches at the supper sponsored by the Student Religious Union Sunday, November 18. The supper was given at the Methodist church.

The next supper will be held on December 16, at the Baptist Church. The purpose of these gatherings, as stated by Bob Bryant, is "to promote a spirit of fellowship and understanding on matters of common interest among students of different church affiliations". The two suppers given so far this year have been very successful, according to Bryant.

Three Organizations Sponsor Joint Dance

The Saturday night dance on December 8 will be sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association, the Spanish Club, and the French Club.

Details are being worked out by the club presidents, Gloria Iden, French Club; Dottie Fitzcharles, Spanish Club, and Fran Butler, W. A. A.

Sophomore Social Board Outlines Party Programs

Plans for organized get-togethers of the sophomore class were discussed at the first meeting of the newly established sophomore social committee Monday afternoon, November 26, in Washington Hall.

Betty Bauman, chairman, outlined the purposes of the committee to plan dances and programs which will bring the sophomore class together in informal entertainment.

Other members of the committee are Carolyn Beach, Emily Russell, Jay McQuat, Jean Morgan, L. B. Moore, Bud Jones, Pete Moncure, and Bucky Hyle.

Walks Replace Seas Of Mud

After almost eight months of construction work, the new steam heat and hot water system is nearing completion. Sorority Court, which has experienced many disfigurements since last spring with the presence of steam shovels, trucks, pneumatic drills, pipes and other equipment, is returning to a more normal appearance as bridges and board walks disappear.

Brick layers are restoring the walks which have been ruts of mud since last spring and final grading is being completed around the houses. The $150,000 project has been installed to supply more uniform heating to the sorority houses, Brown hall, and other buildings on the north side of the campus.

College Women's Club Has Meeting In Dodge Room

The College Women's Club will hold its monthly meeting on November 30 in Phi Beta Kappa Hall. The bridge group will meet in the Apollo Room at 2:00 p. m., and the music appreciation group will meet at 3:00 p. m. in the Dodge Room. There will be a general meeting at 4:00 p. m. in the Dodge Room, after which tea will be served.

Girl Scout Fraternity Gives Bid To Eighteen

Jerrie Healy, president of Kappa Chi Kappa, has announced that 18 girls have been invited to join the national Girl Scout fraternity.

The girls, who were invited to a tea recently and were chosen after that, are Jane Uhlendorf, Rosemary Relph, Mary Jane Keen, Margaret Alphin, Patricia Bowman, Virginia Hawkins, Anna Bright, Joan Teer, Mary Louise Gerschank, Anne Beckley, Peggy Shaw, Ann Callahan, Jo Hubbell, Alice Johnson, Mary Martin, Mary McGinnis, Margaret Brewer, and Betty Laine.

Bot-E-Talk

As the moon waned, as Christmas grew closer and closer, last week's activities for young men and women on William and Mary campus advanced to a new high. Maybe the girls are working for Christmas presents, but Betty thinks Mid-Winters and Jimmy Luncford's orchestra are the main cause. And as the co-ed said, "Life's just one fraternity pin after the other."

Pi Phi Week End: On the hay ride Harry Stinson with Jan Freer and Bob Rodney with Fran Moore acting as assistant chaperones, Bob carrying two blankets "just in case." Jo Wattles sharing a small allotted space in the hay with Bud Jones; Shuz Sprague and Dick Baker at a table at the dance having a serious talk; Betty Hedrick and Woody Kinnamon laughing in a corner; Bonnie Green holding hands with Dave Margolis; Scotty Murray merely jesting with Bert Rance. (for further information on Bert see below).

Date or no date—: Ann Pennington with a very handsome young "man" at the FLAT HAT dance. Jackie Andrews there too in spats, dungarees, and a man's hat, dancing with Ann.

Rotogravure again: Peggy Darby patiently waiting for a picture of the blind date she'll have in the Blue Room of the Shoreham when she, El Weber, and Mary Lou Sibley go to Washington to see their Middies the twenty-fourth.

Better than Railway Express: An old man coming up to Nancy Easley with a mitten that was lost at a "hockey game in New Jersey and I think it belongs to Betty Smith." The mitten belonged to Tommie, and "Ease" still doesn't know whether or not he came all the way to Bilysburg just to deliver that mitten.

And they'll even be on Dean's List together: B. J. Relph suggesting a survey of the scholastic averages of the couples on campus, Frechette getting the competitive spirit, both of them racing for higher marks, Fred being excused from a class to study for exams, Fred with five A's, B. J. in the infirmary consoled by a teddy bear from Fred.

Here, but not for long: H. Reid's fiancée, Frank Steven's Dot, Winnie Lichty's Marv, Bev Bose's Ted.

Odd sights, depending on the definition of odd: The football team at Westwood in Richmond, Pris Wheelan with three ensigns at the Travis House, Bob Lanahan sleeping in Matoaka under a heavy coat and blankets.

Please note: Joyce Remsburg with Burt the Doc, Jan Wolfe with Earl Copp, Tillie Mills with an engagement ring, Greg Mann, Bill Wright, and Cecil Tinder as new members of the Purple Shaft Club.

Yours Very Truly,

Betty.

Orchestra Plans Tentative Concert

Orchestra director Alan Stewart has announced that the orchestra is practicing with the possibility of a future concert. The concert is tentatively planned for some time next semester and may be given in conjunction with the band.

"Our instrumentation is such that we cannot tackle strictly symphonic music," says Mr. Stewart. "Our greatest lack is in cellos, violas, and string basses. We hope that next year we can properly fill these sections. Any other students with orchestra experience, especially string players, are urged to join the orchestra immediately."

The violin section consists of both students and outside players: Barbara Horowitz, Janet Ginsburg, Carol Call's, Betty Lee Gall, Ann Beckley, Dorothy Shramm, Nancy Holland, Ann Pennington, Mary Agnes Kyle, and Dr. and Mrs. D. S. Southworth, Mrs. R. L. Taylor, Robert Simpers, and Iris Shelley.

Flutists are Margaret Ross, Virginia Ruhl, Winifred Jones, and Patricia Johnson. Eleanor Westbrook, Charlesworth Dickerson, and Donald Koons play clarinets, and Carol Shipman plays the oboe. Jeanne Owens and Andy Williams play the trumpets, and Wesley Hill, Tommy Smith, and William Hux play the trombones.

Robert Merriman and Dr. H. R. Phalen play the basses; Betty Breed and Edith Isele, the horns; Mary Lou Strong is the pianist, and Bob DeForest and Matthew Gardner are members of the percussion section.

William and Mary Squad

6 Wins, 3 Losses

Squaws Play 1-1 Deadlock

Late Score By Smith
Ties Richmond Squad

By BETTY BORENSTEIN

A timely goal by right wing "Tommie" Smith in the opening minutes of the second half saved the William and Mary hockey team from defeat at the hands of the Richmond Hockey Club last Saturday afternoon at the girls' athletic field. The game ended in a 1-1 deadlock as, for the second time this year, the squad could do no more than tie the Hockey Club.

The Richmonders, led by the drives, clever passes and deceptive dodges of Mollie Fleet, Harriet Walton, and Helen Driscoll, completely outplayed the Squaws until the final moments of the game. Aside from the scattered moments when the team looked good, there were few times when it measured up to its past standards. Some of the difference may have been because of the fact that the Hockey Club numbers among its players one former All-American, two South-East members, and several Virginia state players. Despite this, however, the Squaws were definitely not up to par although they did improve as the game went on.

Buddy Blunt, left inner on the Club team, started the scoring midway in the first half by rushing the goal after a pass from center half, Driscoll. After that, the Tribe defense tightened up, and the Club was kept scoreless for the remainder of the game.

Outstanding on the Squaws' defense and providing the few bright spots in the Tri-Color's playing were fullbacks Betty Lawson and Middy Henry, virtually the only members of the team who played up to their usual standard.

SPORTS SPIEL

By ED GRIFFIN

With the 1945 football season entering its final stages, the time draws near for the sports experts to choose their mythical all-State eleven and the Indians seem to stand an excellent chance of capturing at least three positions.

It is hardly possible to overlook big, capable Denver Mills when considering Virginia's outstanding ends. Denver has been a constant offensive threat, tallying five of the Tribe's touchdowns, besides being one of the bulwarks of the line which usually forced its opponents to take to the air if they wanted to gain any yardage.

Another of the vital cogs in the machinery of the forward wall is William and Mary's veteran co-captain, Doc Holloway, who wrote the last chapter of his collegiate grid career last week, playing a beautiful game against Richmond. He should certainly rank among the foremost candidates when the guard positions are assigned.

There will be much competition for the tackle posts but careful consideration will undoubtedly go to Knox Ramsey. Following in the footsteps of his illustrious brother, Knox has turned in some of the best line play seen in the South this season.

Despite its array of talent the Indian backfield may not be too well represented. The starting quartet has been changed from game to game, usually because of injuries, and all-State selections are based somewhat on quantity, as well as quality, of play. Tommy Korczowski, the squad's top running back, hurt his leg in mid-season and was handicapped by this throughout the remaining games. Little Henry Blanc, shifty scatback, was not unveiled until late in the year and this will count against him.

Chet Mackiewicz and Stan Magdziak, playing exceptionally well whenever called upon, have likewise had to share their duties, while Big Nick Forkovitch has been hampered by recurring leg injuries. These facts may keep the Tribe's backs from getting the recognition which will certainly go to such men as Virginia's Johnny Duda and Lynn Chewning of V. M. I. who have hammered the opposition all year.

— WM —

Basketball season is just around the corner, regular practice having begun Monday. The Braves will be striving to improve upon last season's rather poor record of only seven wins against eleven defeats. Nucleus of the squad will be let-termen Mackiewicz and Magdziak. From the numerous candidates who are out for practice Coach Holt should be able to mold a team which will furnish its opponents with an abundance of competition. Were it not for the rule against goal guarding, Don Sudkamp, towering 6' 7" center, could win most of the engagements singlehanded.

— WM —

Last Sunday's newspapers were marred by one glaring error. It must have been an error because the headlines read, Maryland 19; Virginia 13. Naturally this could not be. As everybody knows, the Cavaliers have the strongest eleven in the state. Were they not going to one of the bowls after they had pushed over two more easy victims? Maryland was to be just a warm-up. It seems, though, that someone neglected to inform the Terps of the fact that they were supposed to roll over and play dead for the mighty men of Frank Murray; so they just trimmed the Cavaliers without taking into consideration the far superior ability of their opponents. Since then, no matter how much you listen, it's hard to hear any talk of bowl games coming out of Charlottesville.

Indians Top Richmond In Thanksgiving Clash

William and Mary Opens Attack
Late In First Period; Wins 33-0

Playing before a crowd of 7,500, the Tri-color football team trounced the Richmond Spiders, 33-0, in the annual Turkey-day clash at City Stadium, Richmond.

With Left end Denver Mills scoring two touchdowns on passes, and setting up a third, the Big Green began scoring late in the first quarter and before the third period was over had sewed up the game. It was the fifty-third meeting of the two colleges, of which William and Mary has now won 22, with four ending in ties.

O.D. Plays Finals With Taliaferro B

O. D. and Taliaferro B are the two teams vying for the championship in the touch football intramurals, as a result of Tyler's tie with O. D. Tyler A and O. D. declared their incomplete 12-12 deadlock final and consequently the former is eliminated from the playoffs. O. D. will clash with Taliaferro B at Cary Field on November 27, 29 and on December 4 in a three-game series. The team taking the first two contests will win the championship.

Intramural head Kenneth Rawlinson disclosed that a free throw basketball tournament will be held on December 5, 6 and 7. The first round will consist of 25 free throws and the boys with the ten highest scores will qualify for the finals. The tournament is open to any student who is not a member of the varsity basketball squad. Throws can be made from 1:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m. and must be shot in the presence of an official scorer. Intramural medals will be awarded first and second place winners.

The final standings

Team	Won	Lost	Tied
O. D.	4	0	1
Tal. B	4	1	0
Tyler A	2	2	1
Tal. A & C	5	0	0
Tyler B	0	5	0

The game went along on an even basis during the first period. Late in the quarter the Redmen took over the ball on their own 40, and in five plays pushed it across the goal line. On the second play Henry Blanc tossed a pass to Mills, who raced down the sideline until he was knocked out of bounds on the four. Two plays later Blanc skirted left end, and went over standing up.

It took the Big Green three plays to advance the ball from the Spider 33 into the end zone. A 51-yard punt by Stan Magdziak put the Richmonders back on their own 13, and they in turn kicked out to their own 33. Magdziak then faded back and heaved the ball to Mills on the 2, and Denver went over from there. Stan then converted to make the score 13-0.

The last touchdown of the half was made by Tommy Korczowski, who sliced off right tackle from the one-yard line. The tally capped another 60-yard drive by the Indians, which was helped by a five-yard penalty against the losers from their six.

Both Mills and Korczowski co-operated to push the next touchdown over. A three-yard boot by Richmond's Johnson gave the Big Green the ball on the opponent's 20. The Indians made it first

Scatback Henry Blanc Stars At Season's End

Tennessee Native Enjoys Basketball

Henry Blanc is one of the newest backfield men on the Indian squad whose talents have been unveiled this year.

He hails from Jefferson City, Tenn., and attended high school there for three years and attended the Baylor Military School his senior year. Henry didn't start to play football until he was in Baylor, and played guard and center, although he is only 5 feet 9 inches tall and weighs 155 pounds.

Hank also was on the basketball team while in prep school. He was co-captain of the squad and made all-Mid-southern as a forward last year. It is interesting to note that all the teams he played on while at Baylor won mid-southern championships. The football team also just concluded a 33 game winning streak which extended over a period of six years.

In the game with Richmond a few weeks ago Henry made the first touchdown of his life. He did it on a long sweep around the end. The touchdown was also set up by him when he threw a 33 yard pass to left end Denver Mills. He liked the University of North Carolina game the best this year even though the Tribe lost, and thought the toughest game was the tussle with the University of Tennessee.

Henry's other interests include hunting, fishing and swimming; with a laugh he claimed that he also liked to study. Scouting is also interesting to him and he is an Eagle Scout. His favorite food is apple pie which he has cooked himself.

His concluding remark for the interview was that he's entirely immune to all womankind and that he has a horizontal personality, since his favorite pastime is sleeping.

down on the 6, but two plunges netted a five-yard loss. Then Karczowski passed to Mills in the end zone for another six-pointer.

The Redmen scored their final touchdown early in the last quarter. The winners used six plays to march 53 yards down the field for a score. On the seven yard marker Adolph Null took the ball on a reverse from Chet Mackiewicz, and swung around left end for the tally.

William and Mary threatened to score just before the first half ended. A 41-yard drive was featured by a pass from Blanc to Bill Klein, but a pass from Karczowski to Klein which would have meant a score was thrown after the whistle ended the half.

During the week collections were carried on in the various dormitories by representatives of the Campus Coordinating Committee of the Student Religious Union. The committee also sponsored a booth, which contained gifts and novelties made in foreign lands, at the song festival. Proceeds from the sale of these articles will be added to the Service Fund. Students who have not yet done so, may contribute to the Fund before the drive is closed on November 30.

"The World—Student Service Fund is operated on an international, non-sectarian, and non-political basis," Rita Koppleman, chairman of the Coordinating Committee stated. "The fund makes possible reconstruction in war-torn countries around the world, and rehabilitation of students and professors in these countries. It provides for American students a chance to participate in a worldwide enterprise of student to student help."

Another meeting is to be held on December 10 in order to discuss future relationships between the two colleges. One of the William and Mary representatives stated, "It is understood that, although the rivalry will continue to exist, it will be friendly rather than destructive."

The letter sent to Dr. Pomfret is as follows: "Dear Sir: It has been brought to our attention by the administration of Richmond College that some members of the student body took it into their hands to commit various acts of vandalism against the property of the College of William and Mary on the nights of November 19th and 20th, 1945.

"We as members of the Richmond College Student Government, wish to take this opportunity to express to you and the student body our deep regrets for these acts. We realize thoroughly the seriousness of this situation and will endeavor as far as it is within our power to make the proper adjustments regarding this matter.

"We sincerely regret that this situation had to arise inasmuch as in the past years we have had the privilege of enjoying pleasant relations with the College of William and Mary.

"It is our hope that a conference between representatives of both colleges may be held in the very near future in order to establish certain policies which will bring about a cessation of such acts in the future.

"We feel that we cannot adequately express our feelings of regret and sincerely hope that you and the entire student body will accept our humble apologies. Respectfully yours, Gordon Conklin, president of the student government; Mosley Powell, treasurer of the student government; Ralph Shotwell, chairman of the Honor Council."

Dramatists Offer Writing Contest

The Dramatists' Alliance of Stanford University announced recently that its 11th annual competition for four awards in dramatic writing is open to any college student who wishes to compete.

The Maxwell Anderson Award of $100 is offered for verse drama, in full length or one-act form. Dark of the Moon, 1942 winner of this award, has now passed its 200th performance on Broadway. Radio plays in prose or verse may compete for the Stephen Vincent Benet Award of $50. The Henry David Gray Award of $50 is offered for dramatic criticism "in lucid, vigorous style".

No second prizes are given, but leading honors plays and all prize-winning material are recommended to producing and publishing units of established worth.

All students who are interested have been asked to send for registration forms and information as early as possible. The final date of this season's competitions is March 20, 1946. The address for all communications is Dramatists' Alliance, Box 200 Z, Stanford University, California.

Brigham Receives Prize At Printer's Ink Shuffle

Headlines, cartoons, and issues of The FLAT HAT bedecking the bandstand carried out the theme of the "Printer's Ink Shuffle", last Saturday night's dance sponsored by members of The FLAT HAT staff.

Couples were given headlines at the door, and during intermission, the lucky headline was announced. Francie Brigham and her escort were the winners of two tickets to the Williamsburg Theatre.

Multi-colored streamers, hung from the sides and meeting at the center of the ceiling, dropped on the dancers at the end of the evening. Bob DeForest's orchestra supplied the music.

Spirited Students See Indians Win

William and Mary students, eager to see this year's football team win over its arch rival, the University of Richmond, and also play the final game of the season, attended the Thanksgiving game at Richmond's City Stadium on November 22.

Two special buses were filled with gay students in the holiday spirit, who sang and cheered all the way to Richmond. Bill Wright thoroughly decorated the bus he rode in with paper, in the form of bows. Cow bells jangled, card games got under way and everyone had the "victory" spirit.

At the game, many girls were seen wearing yellow and white chrysanthemums with green and yellow streamers. Trink Robinson Moore led the cheering section in singing our new fight song, "The Green, Gold, and Gray" and the recently adopted cheer, "Are We in It?" Though the crowd was scattered and there was no band, the cheering was sufficient to show the team it had full support.

Former William and Mary students cheered as loudly as everyone else for their alma mater. Among them were Jene Carr, Bobby Dent, Jane Eversmann, Mary Raney, Whitey Albertson, and Howard Ranson.

Adolph Null, right halfback met his cousin Jack Null, captain of the "Spider" team, on the football field. Adolph's family was seated in the stand as was the Piefke family.

Bubby Vaughan kept the party rolling after the crowd dispersed and the victory was won. He took the back seat in his bus and led the singing of Christmas carols.

Group Gives Play December 12, 13

The William and Mary Theatre will give its production of Murder in the Cathedral on December 12 and 13. The play is a dramatization of the struggle of Thomas à Becket against the temptations and conflicting forces of the time. Becket, who had once been the king's friend, returned from exile in France, to royal hostility in his own land.

Becket is offered the opportunity to return to his former pleasure and position of favor with the king, to hold baronial power, or to win spiritual glory. The drama of T. S. Eliot concerns itself with the Archbishop's decision and resulting death at the hands of Henry VI's knights.

Do You . . . Want More Big Dances?

Who wanted a big dance at William and Mary? Who was going to support it? Who was going to buy tickets and help with decorations? The students ???

This is what they have been claiming for the past year. In answer to this the dance committee arranged for a big band to come here this Saturday night.

The funds of the dance committee have been advanced on the promise of the students. What is the result? At two o'clock yesterday exactly 18 tickets had been sold! Is this student support?

Jimmy Lunceford has a well publicized band, worth the time and expense to everybody on campus. All efforts are being made to have this dance reach a pre-war level.

If this dance fails, not only future "big" dances are lost, but Saturday night dances will have to be curtailed. We cannot operate on a deficit.

There has been some comment on campus to the effect that the band selected was a poor choice, that it would not play the kind of music the students like to dance to. It is too late now for that kind of talk. The time to have complained was when the band was first contacted. We must make this a success no matter what we think, since the future rests upon our turn-out this Saturday night.

We'll buy our tickets and be there . . . and if enough of us ask for the music we want, we'll have the music we want. After all, we're going to pay for it.

Thank You . . . Keep The Ball Rolling

We complained about the rules, we griped about recreational facilities, we made jokes about the cafeteria food. The only answer given was "wait till the war's over." Then the war ended and still nothing was done. Finally the Administration heard our pleas, and slowly but surely, the ball began to roll.

Something has been done. Now, if juniors and seniors don't want to go to the Saturday dances they needn't walk around campus in the cold, rain, or fog. Dormitories are open for dating till twelve. Instead of letting us freeze on cold days and smother on warm days, the College maintenance has provided regulated heat at a great expense. At last we have a game room for informal dating, although it isn't open as many nights as we'd like. And the food in the dining hall—it's really appetizing. How well we remember those black days of macaroni and bean soup, soup and creamed chicken, creamed chicken and macaroni—the vicious cycle. The first post war dance with a name band is scheduled for this Saturday night. Something like the "old days", isn't it?

Yes, the ball is beginning to roll. We thank the Administration, but with these thanks goes the hope that the ball will continue to roll.

B. L. S.

Editor's Note:

Students are requested not to take copies of The FLAT HAT out of the office on Wednesday morning, and not to take more than one copy from the dormitories; since only enough copies are printed for each person to have one and the exact number necessary is distributed to each dormitory.

Letter To The Editor

To Fred Frechette,

In response to your article of last week, we would like to bring up the female side of the picture. To our way of thinking, the discussion was extremely one-sided!

Has it ever occurred to you that the men on this campus appear to be loaded with projects? Our only defense is bigger and better projects. After all, do these boys think that marriage is the ultimate aim of the girls with each new date? And from our extensive knowledge of bull sessions held, in, shall we say, Taliaferro and O. D., they not only discuss the way their respective projects are progressing but give blow by blow descriptions!!!

There is another side to your ideas, Fred, which we think is much more important. Let us investigate the hidden meaning of all these superficial mannerisms.

Girls need the companionship of boys, as boys need the friendship of girls. This is a natural situation. You admit it, we admit it, and even your old friend Freud admits it. Most of the girls here at school, have come with the idea of really entering into college life, learning from books, and enjoying contacts with all types of people, girls and boys. In this way, boys and girls can find out with which type of person they are most compatible. A definite asset, certainly, in choosing a future environment.

All these gestures you have, interpreted as projects are fundamentally friendly gestures to put the male at ease and at home on the W&M campus. Sure, we like to date the campus boys, but if going steady is the ulterior motive of the campus boys with each new date, the girls have a right to use their discretion even if, in your terms, it means tackling a new project.

With best wishes for hanging your pin, we remain,

Yours truly,
(Names withheld)

William & Mary Go-Round

By FRED FRECHETTE

Last year, Bill Anderson wrote a column about the Wigwam in an attempt to point out a few of its minor deficiencies. He didn't go nearly far enough, yet the Wigwam employees had martyrdom written all over them for weeks afterward. I hate to make them go through that again, but I feel that the Wigwam is failing in its function to serve the students.

Here we have the case of a soda-fountain and book store supposedly operated for the benefit of the students . . . which, of course, is laughable. Even if we look at it as a plain everyday profit-seeking enterprise we can laugh, because, as a business venture, it is an awful flop. What would they do without their monopoly on the sale of textbooks? A business enterprise is supposed to attract customers through goods offered and services rendered!

CUSTOMERS ONLY POTENTIAL

The Wigwam has about a thousand potential customers each day in our student body. How many do you think ever bother to patronize the place? At the same time, the drug stores in town are heavily patronized by students who would much rather go to the Wigwam amid other students. But they don't go to the Wigwam, except for school supplies and an occasional ice-cream cone.

Here are a few reasons why such a condition has come to exist:

1. As bad as the help situation is, the soda-fountains in town have generally more courteous employees than the Wigwam. One surly employee is enough to give any business a bad reputation . . . and the Wigwam has the prize of them all behind the sandwich counter.

2. The Wigwam has very little to offer in the way of things to eat. It makes the lousiest coffee it has ever been my misfortune to taste. On every other campus I have ever seen, their snack-shop was immensely superior to ours. They had any number of things to eat . . . not merely ice-cream and one or two sandwiches.

100% PROFIT

3. The Wigwam has violated the students' trust in its price policy (if they have one). The classic example of this is the sale of plain or chocolate milk . . . they use eight-ounce Virginia Maid jelly jars and charge ten cents. That amounts to forty cents a quart for milk; a margin of better than 100% over cost in any language. Toast, two pieces of bread exposed to heat, costs ten cents! And why in the world do cigarettes cost sixteen cents at the Wigwam and only fifteen cents in town?

4. The Wigwam is closed when the need for its service . . . that is, presuming it would give any . . . is greatest. There certainly is a market on this campus for light breakfasts; decent coffee, fruit juice, wholesome doughnuts or coffee rolls, or toast . . . yet it doesn't open until nine . . . and even then, the main door is locked until nine-thirty or ten! And in the evenings . . . why, when I was a freshman, you couldn't get in to the place between nine and ten-thirty in the evening because of the crowds! And how about all the boys who like a snack around eleven or eleven-thirty . . . they go to the pool-hall now.

I have not covered nearly all the points; I've heard of countless other things in regard to textbook policies and other merchandising faults (you know what I mean . . . it's too hard to dip, etc.). If you have anything to add to the above list, write to the editor . . . who can tell, we might even get something done for us!

POST SCRIPT

When I wrote the above, I had no idea that starting Tuesday, November 27, (yesterday) the Wigwam would be under new management, but such is the case. However, what I have written was true of the Wigwam under its former management. Any change that the new manager makes will be bound to improve conditions, since any change would be better.

The students bear no malice against anyone who tries to improve things, so I'm sure that they wish the new manager all the success in the world, hoping that he will be able to make the Wigwam truly a place for the students.

Richmond, W-M Seek Agreement

By BUDDY CANOLES & HARRY STINSON

On the eve of the William and Mary-Richmond game three representatives from the University of Richmond Student Government paid a visit to this campus. Their mission had a different purpose from that of the representatives of the same university who had visited our campus earlier in the week.

These students came, not to register a complaint, but to apologize for the defacement of school property by members of Richmond University. The delegation went on an inspection tour of the campus to inspect the damage. It was easily seen that the painters from Richmond had carried the school spirit a bit too far. Some of the paint had been applied in such a manner that it will never be completely removed. After the inspection tour both groups met to formulate plans which would eliminate such destructive actions.

STUDENTS DECIDE

Actually, nothing definite was concluded, but a foundation was laid for the building of some concrete action. A tentative date was set for another meeting of the two groups at which time some specific understandings between the schools will be reached. We should like to emphasize the fact that any agreements made will be decided by the students of the two schools. Here is something constructive that the students can do.

The officers of the Richmond Student Government expressed the opinion that their school was largely responsible for anything the William and Mary students did to their campus. The students at William and Mary can be assured that the University of Richmond has apologized in a most humble manner for the unbecoming actions of a few members of their student body. Also, proper action will be taken against those who participated in the painting project. The situation this year has been dealt with to the satisfaction of both schools.

PREVENTATIVE PURPOSE

The real purpose behind last week's meeting was to prevent such occurrences in future years. Some plan must be adopted that will reduce to a minimum unfortunate reoccurrences.

Whatever action is taken is a step in the right direction. There is no desire on any one's part to eliminate the existing rivalry. The only object is to reduce this rivalry to a friendly and harmless basis. Destruction of property and personal injury over-step the bounds of friendly rivalry and show utter disrespect toward others.

WE APOLOGIZE

If such destruction of property continues, athletic relations with Richmond might justly be terminated. This is a subject that we do not even want to consider. Richmond is traditionally our rival and no football season would be complete without a game with the Spiders.

We want to thank the students who came to apologize to us and we offer our own apologies for any unbecoming acts that we have done. We believe that the straight forwardness of these students has made our schools better friends.
